It's time for APC!

by Martin H. Stauber '86, President

Another year has passed and the Neufeld Society continues to prosper. I have enjoyed this past year as president and look forward to the future of our organization as well.

Much work has gone into the preparation of this year's APC Orthopaedic Program. I invite you to not only partake but also to encourage any colleagues, who may not be familiar with our annual event, to attend as well. Tom Donaldson's enthusiasm in preparing for the 1997 Total Joint Arthroplasty program is much appreciated. The conference is sure to be a success.

We also look forward to the 1997 Jan-Feb issue of the Alumni JOURNAL. With orthopaedics as the featured department, an update on the current state of affairs at our alma mater can also be found.

And lastly, please join me in welcoming your 1997 Neufeld Society president, Dr. Randy O'Hara. I am sure his eagerness will also continue to inspire a renewed interest in our association. I look forward to seeing you all at APC. ■

The Chairman's Corner

by William P. Bunnell, MD, Chairman, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, LLUMC

The "bridge" analogy seemed very overworked last year during the political campaigns. Talk of being on the "brink" of a new century probably topped the media drivel, in my opinion.

1996 was a good year for our department, and hopefully one that might appear transitional in retrospect. One of our most important academic accomplishments was a satisfactory review by the Residency Review Committee and a full accreditation for five years. This is no small task, and one that requires increasing effort and attention as both the standards and review process become more stringent.

We have continued to see growth and maturity in our department. We are honored to be featured in the January/February '97 issue of the Alumni JOUR- NAL, and I hope you will gain some insight into our activities by reading the articles. Our research effort, under the direction of Ian Clark, PhD, is rapidly gaining momentum with the acquisition of new projects and grants. We will have a significant presence at the Orthopaedic Research Society this year.

We have just completed the resident applicant-interview process. We continue to be blessed with outstanding talent. We have made some "maintenance" adjustments in our educational curriculum this year that seem to be working very well. It is very gratifying to get feedback from resident applicants who have interviewed at other programs as one way of evaluating our own. The comments most frequently heard are 1) the residents are happy; 2) the educational curriculum is excellent; 3) the residents feel they are taught excellent surgical skills; 4) the program is well balanced between "service and education." It is music to my ears!

Tom Donaldson, MD, Program Chairman for APC 1997, has put together an outstanding program combining some important aspects of prosthetic joint replacement with some of the socioeconomic realities with which we have to cope. I hope you will be able to attend.

Bridges are usually thought of as transitions. For some they are used as a retreat. For others, a way to advance. Still others may think of them as a way over otherwise difficult passages. There probably are no bridges for us right now. Only dedicated foot work. ■
